Executive Council Chairman's Decision No. (3) of 1993

Regarding the granting of allowances to citizen employees in educational bodies in the Emirate of Abu Dhabi

We, Khalifa bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Crown Prince, Chairman of the Executive Council,

Having reviewed Law No. (1) of 1974 on the Reorganization of the Governmental Apparatus in the Emirate of Abu Dhabi and its amendments, and Regulation No. (6) of 1979 regarding the allocation of housing for citizen employees in the Emirate of Abu Dhabi and its amendments, and based on the proposal of a member of the Executive Council, and the approval of the Executive Council, We have issued the following decision:

Article One:

The provisions of this decision shall apply to male citizens who are Senior Supervisors, Supervisors, School Principals and their Assistants, Head Teachers, Teachers, Social and Psychological Specialists, Coordinators, and Laboratory Technicians - who are actively working in public schools in the Emirate of Abu Dhabi. This decision does not apply to those who hold the job title without actual practice.

Article Two:

The beneficiaries of the provisions of this decision shall be granted a special allowance for the following categories:

1. Senior Supervisors, Supervisors, and School Principals (AED 3,000) three thousand dirhams per month.

2. Assistant School Principals (AED 2,500) two thousand five hundred dirhams per month.

3. The remaining categories mentioned in Article One (AED 2,000) two thousand dirhams per month.

Article Three:

(50%) fifty percent of the allowances mentioned in Article Two shall be added for the beneficiaries of this decision who work in remote areas of the Emirate.

This shall be determined by a decision from the Head of the Department of Finance in coordination with the concerned authorities.

Article Four:

The categories mentioned in Article One shall be granted suitable government housing in accordance with the regulations thereof in the Abu Dhabi government, in addition to their prescribed housing allowance.

Additionally, those who own their own private government housing in their work areas in the Emirate of Abu Dhabi and are entitled to the prescribed housing allowance shall be granted an additional allowance of (AED 2,000) two thousand dirhams per month for married individuals and (AED 1,500) one thousand five hundred dirhams per month for unmarried individuals.

Article Five:

A furniture allowance shall be disbursed at a rate of (AED 30,000) thirty thousand dirhams for married individuals, and an amount of (AED 15,000) fifteen thousand dirhams for unmarried individuals.

Those who have previously received this allowance and are still in service shall be granted (50%) fifty percent of the furniture allowance referred to in the preceding paragraph.

Article Six:

The Department of Finance shall allocate the necessary annual financial appropriations to implement this decision from the Emirate's budget, effective from the academic year 1993 - 1994.

Article Seven:

The Head of the Department of Finance, in coordination with the concerned authorities, shall issue the necessary regulatory and executive decisions to implement this decision.

Article Eight:

This decision shall be published in the Official Gazette and shall come into effect as of the first of September 1993.

Khalifa bin Zayed Al Nahyan

Crown Prince

Chairman of the Executive Council

Issued by us in Abu Dhabi,

On: 3 October 1993.

Note on Title Amendment

Article (4) of Law No. (1) of 2017 concerning the Financial System of the Abu Dhabi Government states: "The phrase (Executive Council) or the phrase (Chairman of the Executive Council) shall be replaced by the word (Ruler), wherever either of them appears in any other legislation, in relation to any approvals, appropriations, or decisions concerning the Department, including executive, administrative, financial, human resources, retirement, contracts, and procurement matters of the Department." Therefore, this notice is required.
